

NOVAtime's new Advanced Schedule Manager (ASM) Product to be Showcased at Booth #429 in the Upcoming 32nd Annual Congress of the American Payroll Association (APA)

NOVAtime announces its participation in the 32nd Annual Congress of the American Payroll Association (APA) in Minneapolis, Minnesota. During the conference, NOVAtime will showcase its new Advanced Schedule Manager (ASM) product to Human Resource and Payroll professionals at booth #429.

Diamond Bar, Calif. (PRWEB) April 29, 2014 -- NOVAtime Technology, Inc. (<http://www.novatime.com>), a forward-thinking Workforce Management solution development company, announced today that it will participate in the American Payroll Association (APA) Congress in Minneapolis, Minnesota, May 13-17, 2014. The company plans to unveil its new Advanced Schedule Manager (ASM) product.

The APA's Annual Congress is the world's largest Payroll, Accounts Payable, and Finance expo. It offers exceptional training and a variety of educational topics for payroll and human resource professionals. Payroll and HR personnel from around the country will attend the tradeshow to listen to guest speakers, continue their payroll education, and learn more about products and solutions provided by companies like NOVAtime.

NOVAtime will unveil its newest solution, the NOVAtime Advanced Schedule Manager at the APA congress. Frank Su, CEO and Founder of NOVAtime, says, "We're very pleased to release the Advanced Schedule Manager after having worked very closely with our customers and listening to their challenges of real-time, efficient scheduling and integrating this scheduling with Time and Attendance. It's a powerful tool that supports dynamic and powerful workforce schedule management methods, ultimately increasing efficiency and productivity."

Brian Harris, Vice President of Client Services, explains, "With ASM, employees can be manually or automatically scheduled according to resource requirements, which may be based on location, tasks, certifications, and other qualifications." Mr. Harris adds, "In addition to schedule giveaway, schedule pickup, schedule swapping amongst employees, and open shift bidding, our Advanced Schedule Manager can also identify and automatically contact employees who are qualified to fill open schedules by text message or phone call."

NOVAtime will display its innovative solutions at booth #429, where you can also meet the NOVAtime team and be among the first to explore the newly released Advanced Schedule Manager product. "The annual APA congress is an extraordinary payroll event with great exposure. We are excited to have an opportunity to show Payroll executives and Human Resource professionals how NOVAtime's state-of-the-art Time and Attendance /Workforce Management solution and the new Advanced Schedule Manager product can be used to protect their companies' bottom lines and allow them to proactively manage their workforces," says Mr. Harris.
