

NOVAtime participates in the Society for Human Resources Management (SHRM) 62nd Annual Conference in San Diego, California between June 27 and June 29, 2010

NOVAtime announces its participation in the 62nd Annual Conference of the Society for Human Resources Management (SHRM). During the conference NOVAtime will demonstrate its powerful Workforce Management Solutions and flexible application integration to Human Resource and Payroll professionals at Booth #531

Monterey Park, Calif. (Vocus) June 25, 2010 -- NOVAtime Technology, Inc., a forward-thinking workforce management solution development company, today announced that it will participate in the Society for Human Resources Management (SHRM) Annual Conference in San Diego, California between June 27th and June 29th, 2010.

Society for Human Resources Management (SHRM) is an annual conference held each year at the end of the month of June, facilitating Human Resource and Payroll professionals an opportunity to witness innovative advancements within the workforce management/time and attendance industry in order to provide better products and services for organizations HR/Payroll personnel and departmental operations. NOVAtime will attend the 2010 SHRM annual conference and showcase the complete line of NOVAtime's product suite for workforce management / time and attendance solutions.

NOVAtime will be on display at Booth #531 and 533.

In 2006, NOVAtime showcased NOVAtime 3000 R4 Enterprise solution at SHRM and Frank Su said, "The R4 version of NOVAtime 3000 Enterprise Edition solution enables our customers to achieve unprecedented performance improvement / optimization in the web services, and many new features and product enhancements. We have a strong commitment to provide the best products and services to our customers. Our goal is to provide a great Time and Attendance System for our customers to efficiently and proactively manage their workforce, so that they can spend more time focusing on their business, rather than working in their business." Instead of looking back at the achievement, NOVAtime moved forward and focused on the next challenge: improving the latest and greatest.

In 2009, three short or long years later, NOVAtime participated at SHRM and Brian Harris said, "The latest version of NOVAtime4000 Software-as-a-Service \(SaaS\) solution is phenomenal in-terms of features and performance. You can take advantage of NOVAtime's time and attendance solution to automate and streamline your timekeeping, improve availability and delivery of information, and better manage your labor costs using a pay as you go SaaS price model. In today's economy, using Software-as-a-Service workforce management solution simply makes sense, while also allowing companies to focus IT and capital in other areas." A year before, in 2008, NOVAtime 4000 received Plynt certification, establishing that a web application has adequate measures to guard against remote adversaries and protect against a wide range of threats. Plynt issued two certificates to NOVAtime: one for the NOVAtime 4000 Workforce Management Solution (Supervisor Web Services, Employee Web Services, and Administrator Web Services), and one for the NOVAtime Enterprise Web Services (N.E.W.S.), a secured middleware services for NOVAtime 4000 Enterprise Application, increasing NOVAtime's validity as an industry leader by offering a secure, intuitive, easy-to-use, web based time and attendance solution by offering features and functionality that specifically addressed customer needs, challenges, and budgets.

Today, in 2010, NOVAtime will attend the SHRM annual conference and showcase the complete line of NOVAtime's product suite for workforce management / time and attendance solutions, confident in knowing that the products, solutions, services, and value that NOVAtime offers customers are real and recognized, both monetarily and on a human level, because at the end of the day it is real people who use NOVAtime for their workforce management needs. Ian Sexton, NOVAtime SVP, says, "If you have a need for a workforce management system, we have a solution for you. Visit us at Booth #531." For more information, call 877.486.6682.
