NOVAtime supports the most comprehensive selection of data collection options, including badge terminals (proximity HID / barcode / magnetic stripe), hand-punch terminals, fingerprint terminals, PDA scanners, and telephone. NOVAtime's push technology time clocks automatically "pushes" employee time punches to NOVAtime's workforce management system without the need for a data-collection computer. Scott Rose, NOVAtime's Regional Sales Manager, says, "The newly released GT400P hand readers are easy-to-use and punches are pushed automatically to the server, without using any data collection servers. Employees can see their entire pay period worth of time punches at the time clock and see their accrual hours such as vacation, sick and personal days." Mr. Rose adds, "Our push technology GT400P hand readers require minimal network configuration and are supported in even the most secured networks across the country."

NOVAtime will also showcase the new mobile phone solutions, NOVAtime Mobile Web Services (N.M.W.S.) for supervisors and employees.
